PUB & DINING

WELCOME

The Hornsmill, re-opened after a major development in 2014 and is named after an old flour mill which stood near the Horns Mill Bridge in c.1850.

The flour mill was one of a small number of Cheshire mill sites to have both a windmill and a watermill at the same time, which was quite unique and the name 'Horn' is presumed to derive from one of the millers of that time.

With our delicious food, our finest selection of quality ales and a friendly warm welcome, we like to think that we have all the bases covered.

We hope you will enjoy our hospitality and your visit today.

TARSIER (England - Regional)

Drawing on influences from the cuisine of the Philippines, Cambodia, Vietnam and Thailand, Tarsier Gin was inspired by a backpacking trip across Southeast Asia. Over the course of two years, the citrus-forward gin was developed and hand-crafted in a 1-litre copper alembic pot still in a Manchester kitchen. The final recipe that was settled upon features a total of seven traditional gin botanicals, plus the addition of the exotic calamansi, Kampot pepper, Thai sweet basil and galangal.
